THE
SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,
Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.
MONDAY, February 13th, 1744. [Numb. 516.]

His MAJESTY's moſt gracious SPEECH to both Houſes of Parliament, on Thurſday the Firſt Day of December, 1743.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

SINCE your laſt Meeting, I have, purſuant to your Advice, and in Conſequence of your Support, exerted My Endeavours for the Preſervation of the Houſe of Auſtria, and the Maintenance of the Balance and Liberties of Europe. It has pleaſed God to give Succeſs to Our Arms, in Conjunction with thoſe of the Queen of Hungary, and as Her Auxiliaries. The Dominions of that Princeſs have been entirely evacuated by Her Enemies; and the powerful Armies, which had marched to their Aſſiſtance, have been obliged to retire out of the Empire. In this Conjuncture; it is a great Satisfaction to Me to acquaint you, that I have been joined by a Body of Troops of My good Friends and Allies the States General.

In further Proſecution of theſe Meaſures, the Definitive Treaty between Me, the Queen of Hungary, and the King of Sardinia, has been happily concluded, which ſhall be laid before you. The Advantages, which cannot fail to reſult from this Alliance, to the Common Cauſe, are apparent; and it will be particularly conducive to the Intereſts of My Kingdoms, by diſappointing the ambitious Views of the Crown of Spain, with which We are engaged in ſo juſt and neceſſary a War. As I make no Doubt, but you will proceed upon theſe Foundations with Firmneſs and Conſtancy, We may reaſonably hope to ſee the publick Tranquility re-eſtabliſhed, and a general and honourable Peace obtained. Theſe are my Views, to which My utmoſt Attention and Reſolution ſhall not be wanting. But, in order to bring about theſe great Ends, Meaſures of Vigour are neceſſary; and to enable Me to concert and carry on ſuch Meaſures, I do, with a juſt Confidence, rely on your zealous, chearful, and effectual Support.

The Marriage of My youngeſt Daughter with the Prince Royal of Denmark, cannot but give Satisfaction to all My good Subjects, as it tends to cement and ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the Eſtimates to be laid before you, for the Service of the enſuing Year; and deſire you to grant Me ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be requiſite for the Honour and Security of the Nation, and adequate to the Exigencies of the Publick.

In doing this, let me particularly recommend it to you, to enable Me to concert proper Meaſures, and to enter into, and make good ſuch Alliances and Engagements with other Powers, as may be neceſſary for the Support of the Queen of Hungary, and reſtoring the Balance of Power.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have had ſuch Experience of your Duty and Affection to me, and of your Zeal for the Good of your Country, that it would be ſuperfluous to add any Thing to preſs theſe important Conſiderations upon you. Union and Harmony amongſt ourſelves, and Vigour and Diſpatch in your Proceedings, are indiſpenſably neceſſary in ſuch Conjunctures. Let nothing obſtruct or divert your Steadineſs and Application to the great Ends which I have laid before you; and be aſſured, that nothing can ever divert Me from purſuing your true and laſting Intereſt.

LONDON, October 13.

On Monday Night (the third Inſtant) died at his Seat, near Peterſham in Surrey, his Grace the DUKE of ARGYLE and GREENWICH, &c. without Iſſue Male; ſo that he is ſucceeded in his Title, as Duke of Argyle, by his Brother, the Right Honourable the Earl of Iſla one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland, and one of the Lords of the Regency. He was Hereditary Juſticier General of the County of Argyle and the Iſles; Lord Lieutenant and Hereditary High Sheriff of the ſame; Hereditary great Maſter of the King's Houſhold in Scotland; High Steward of Malmsbury; one of the Lords of his Majeſty's privy Council, and Knight of the moſt noble Order of the Garter. The Earl of Dalkeith, eldeſt Son to the Duke of Buccleugh, married the Lady Caroline, eldeſt Daughter of the Duke of Argyle, on whom the Title of Dutcheſs of Greenwich is ſettled, by a late Grant from the Crown.

London, November 5. Private Letters from Paris ſay, That the Count de Montijo had Orders to preſs the Performance of Treaties immediately, or to threaten the French Court with Spain's making a ſeparate Peace.

The Fame Privateer (formerly the St. Joſeph Prize) commanded by Captain Cummins, late Commander of the Cæſar Indiaman, lying in Long Reach, being compleatly fitted up, having on board 350 Men, and mounting fifty four Guns, viz. 24 Twelve-Pounders, 24 Eighteen-Pounders, and ſix Twenty four Pounders, beſides Swivels, will ſail to cruize on the Spaniards, with ſeveral other Privateers, the firſt fair Wind.

The Lords Juſtices, upon Advice that the Plague has broke out at Smyrna and ſome other Places, have order'd all Ships already arriv'd from thence that are not yet unladen, and all thoſe that ſhall hereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from any of the Places infected, to perform Quarantine.

By Letters from Port Mahon, dated Sept. 20, there is Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship the Naſſau had taken two Spaniſh Privateers of 12 Carriage Guns each, of Barcelona, and carried them into Minorca.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Lieutenant General William Hargrave to be Governor of the Town and Garriſon of Gibraltar, in the room of Lieutenant General Jaſper Clayton, deceas'd.

The Prize now lying at the Weſt Dock, Deptford, taken by the Squirrel Man of War, was laſt Week cond mn'd; each Foremaſt Man on the ſame will have 150 l.

Monday came Advice, that the Recovery, Capt. Hugh Swift, from Jamaica, laden with 400 Hogſheads of Sugar, was taken the 12th of October, about twenty Leagues Weſtward of the Lizard, by a Spaniſh Privateer belonging to St. Sebaſtian's, of eight Carriage and twelve Swivel Guns, and above 100 Men.

The Florinella, Capt. John Moſs, laden with Rice, &c. bound to London, was taken the 21ſt of October, by the ſaid Privateer, much about the ſame Place.

Letters from Dartmouth mention, that Capt. Moſs, with ſeveral of the Crew belonging to the Recovery above-mention'd, were landed there the 28th of October, from on board a Dutch Brigantine, into which Ship they were put by the Privateer the Day before, about eight Leagues South of the Lizard.

Tueſday the Count d'Oſſorio, his Sardinian Majeſty's Ambaſſador, arrived at his Houſe at Lincoln's Inn Fields from Germany; on which Occaſion there were great Rejoicings at the ſaid Houſe.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint the Rt. Hon. James Lord Tyrawly, to be his Majeſty's Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the Empreſs of Ruſſia.

Extract of a Letter from on board his Majeſty's Ship Cumberland, off Villa Franca, dated October 9.

I have long wiſh'd for the Pleaſure to ſend you ſome News which might be agreeable, and I hope the following will prove ſo: Some few Days ſince the Spaniards, to the Number of 18,000 Horſe and and Foot, lay incamp'd near Villafranca, in order to invade the King of Sardinia's Dominions. Our English Soldiers, to the Number of 1500, lay to guard a narrow Path, and had two Batteries of 18 Guns each to defend them, and the Barfleur, and the Norfolk, one of 90, and the other of 80 Guns, lay opposite to the Beach, where the Enemy were obliged to pass; and when they attempted it, our Soldiers fir'd briskly, with their Great Guns and small Arms; as did also the two Men of War with such Success, that in a few Hours they kill them upwards of 2000 Men, and took 15 0 Prisoners.— Our Officers have worn Colour'd Ribbons, in Honour of this Victory.

CHARLES TOWN, Feb 13.

On Tuesday last his Majesty's Ship Rye, commanded by Capt. Charles Hardy, sail'd for England, (in whom are gone Passengers the Honourable John Fenwicke, Esq; and his Family, and Capt. Mark Anderson, late of the Loyal William, our Privateer) with a large Fleet of Ships under Convoy. And the same Day sail'd on a Cruize (the Wind not having favoured before) his Majesty's Ship Tartar, commanded by Capt. Henry Ward

The Ship Denis, Capt Bernard Martin, for London, had the Misfortune to run ashore on the North Breaker Head, in attempting to get out with the Rest of the Fleet under Convoy of the Rye, but proper Assistance being immediately sent her by Capt Joseph Homer, of his Majesty's Ship Flamborough, she got off the same Night, without farther Damage, and proceeded on her Voyage.

We hear, that the Ship which arrived last Tuesday from Jamaica, in Rebellion-Road, will be obliged to perform Quarantine there, with the Pilot who brought her over this Bar, on Account of her having the Small-Pox on board.

Capt. Andrew Breading, in a beautiful new Ship, from this Place for London, and another Ship that sail'd in Company with her, were lately taken by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into St Sebastian's.

We hear from Frederica in Georgia, that a Party of 43 Yamasee Indians (in Amity with the Spaniards at St Augustine, near which they have a small Town) had lately landed on St Simon's Island, and carried off Five Soldiers of Capt Mark Carr's Company; upon Advice of which, Capt. Horton, (the present commanding Officer in Georgia) immediately ordered them to be pursued, by a Party of the Regiment, and some Indians, in Boats.——Of the Return and Success of whom, the following Extract of a Letter to a Gentleman in this Town, dated January 26th, gives a particular Account; which I persuade myself will not be disagreeable to my Readers.

'——Yesterday the Boats return'd, with Capt. Carr's 5 Men unhurt, one Yamasee Indian, Prisoner, and the Scalps of 5 more.—On Sunday last (after our People had lain three Days in Ambush about 40 Miles up St John's River, on the Georgia side) a Runner which the Yamasees had sent before, discovered some of the Creek Indians, and retired to his Friends. Yet they (being 43 in Number) after a short Consultation, advanced briskly and gave the first Fire; but Lieutenant Francis and Mr. Demitree with their Party, pouring in a Volley with Musquets and Blunderbusses, and our Friends the Creek Indians (of which there were but 26, and many of them Boys) flanking them, five fell on the spot, one was made Prisoner, and many more wounded, who escaped quite naked by getting into Thickets. Our Indians hal'd their Boats with the Enemies Baggage, consisting of Deer skins, dried Meat, Blankets, and some Arms and Ammunition.—Of our Indians Toonahowi, Nephew to old Tomo Chachi, was kill'd, by a shot through his Breast, his Body was brought off and buried on Cumberland Island. A Corporal of Capt. Carr's Marines has a shot through his Body, but not dangerous; None of our People received any other Hurt——The Indian Prisoner reports, That a great Number of French Indians are lately arrived at St. Augustine.
